HARSHA VIRAL PATEL

Dear PATEL, HARSHA VIRAL:

We have received your application for an immigrant visa. Unfortunately, your file is incomplete; therefore, your visa application has been refused at the Consulate under Section 221(g) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA).

Your case is under administrative processing. We will contact you once the administrative processing is complete.

Please be advised that for U.S. visa purposes, including ESTA (see the ESTA website), this decision constitutes a denial of a visa.

When you are contacted, please present this letter and your passport to any one of the 11 document drop-off locations. Visit <https://www.ustraveldocs.com/in/> and select 221g/pending document submission at Visa Application Center (VAC). Please note you will not be able to submit the documents at Visa Application Center (VAC) without scheduling an appointment with the VAC. The U.S. Embassy/ Consulates in India will offer free document pickup/submission services at the Visa Application Centers/OFC where the Embassy/Consulate is located. Applicants collecting/submitting documents from any other locations will need to pay a nominal fee of Rs 650/- per document at the time of pickup/ submission.

Our call centers are open 8:00 am to 5:00 pm Monday through Friday and 9:00 am to 6:00 pm on Sunday. From within India, please dial 91-120-4844644 or 91-22-62011000. From the United States, please call 1-703-520-2239. You may also send your inquiries via email to support-india@ustraveldocs.com.

Sincerely,

(Vice) Consul, Immigrant Visa Unit
